Where required, the Board adheres to the Public Libraries Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. P44 as it relates to its composition. The purpose of this bylaw is to guide the council's appointment process and the Board's appointment of its officers.

Section 1: Composition

1. While the Public Libraries Act, s. 9(1) prescribes a Board of no fewer than 5 members, and gives the municipal council the power to make appointments, in accordance with By-law 2004-183, the Clarence-Rockland Public Library Board endorses a Board that consists of 7 bilingual members.
2. In accordance with the Public Libraries Act, s. 10(4), municipal council will appoint all Board members at the first meeting of council in each term.
3. In accordance with the Public Libraries Act, s. 10 (2a), municipal council shall not appoint more of its own members to the Board than the number that is one less than a majority of the Board.
4. In accordance with the Public Libraries Act, s. 10 (3), a Board member shall hold office for a term concurrent with the term of the appointing municipal council, or until a successor is appointed.
5. A Board member may be re-appointed for one or more terms.
6. A member seeking re-appointment must follow the same process of application for consideration as for new candidates to the Board.
7. In accordance with the Public Libraries Act, s. 13, if any member of the Board is disqualified from holding office, the members shall forthwith declare the seat vacant and notify council accordingly.
8. In accordance with the Public Libraries Act, s.12, when a vacancy arises in the membership of the Board, the municipal council shall promptly appoint a person to fill the vacancy and to hold the office for the unexpired term, except where the unexpired term is less than forty-five days.

Section 2: Officers

9. In accordance with the Public Libraries Act, s. 14-15, the officers of the Board are the chair, the secretary, the treasurer and the Chief Executive Officer (CEO).
10. In addition, the Board may designate a vice-chair as an officer.
11. In accordance with the Public Libraries Act, s. 14(3), the chair shall be elected at the first meeting in a new term.
12. The vice chair shall be elected as needed.
13. The Board appoints the CEO, who will be secretary and treasurer as allowed by the Public Libraries Act, s. 15(5).
14. If any of the officers step down, retires or is dismissed during his/her term, the Board must immediately elect or appoint a new officer.
